LABOR DEMANDS By the Associated Press. The world economic conference at London approached a major crisis last night as the currencies of France and those European countries still on the gold standard which are largely allied with French policy trembled in the balance.

Anxious lest the continued sharp depreciation of the American dollar should render their position upon the gold standard unienable, the European gold countries sought support from the Bank of England in this causing time.

The French delegation had abandoned for the moment all hope of inducing either the United States or Great Britain to accept a fixed valuation of their currencies in foreign exchange.

Esthonia, a small Baltic state which has clung to the gold standard through the recurring financial shocks of the past two years, slipped from the yellow basis yesterday.

The American delegation at London is understood to have participated in various conferences seeking to find a way of assistance for the French franc and associated currencies.

Today for the next contest and perhaps an answer to the question of whether traditionally dry territory has changed to wet.

On July 18 Alabama and Arkansas will vote on the repeal question. Both states have been dry from almost the beginning of the active prohibition movement. It is generally conceded that to win the repeal forces must carry some of the states of the usually solidly dry south. These two states are the first in that region to vote upon the issue.

Early reports from Arkansas strongly favored victory for the prohibition ists. But lately there has been an increase in anti-prohibition activity reported which any have an effect in the three weeks remaining before the election.

In Alabama late reports are there

An expression of confidence that South Carolina would vote dry in the November election on the question of prohibition repeal was made by Dr. C. E. Burts, former Macon, Ga., pastor, who arrived here today to direct the dry campaign in the state.

Dr. Burts, a native of Abbeville country, will go to Columbia, Friday to confer with Methodist ministers and

STEADY SMOKERS TURN TO CAMELS

BILL TILDEN says: "Tournament play in tennis imposes a terrific strain upon the nervous system. Healthy nerves are essential if a player is going to be successful in maintaining his speed, endurance, and the psychology of victory. As a steady smoker, I find that cigarettes vary a lot in their effect upon the nerves. I have tried all the other popular brands, but for years I have smoked Camels. Because of their extraordinary mildness I know that I can smoke Camels as freely as I wish and still have healthy nerves."

* Steady smokers turn to Camels because the costlier tobaccos in Camels never tire the taste-never get on the nerves. Your taste and your nerves will confirm this. Start smoking Camels today and prove it for yourself. It is more fun to know.

IT IS MORE FUN TO KNOW

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand. You will find Camels rich in flavor and delightfully mild.

Improvement Sought

For Postoffice Subs NEW YORK, June 28 .- (AP)-Albert Gottliev, president of the National Association of Substitute Postoffice Employes, today made an appeal for aid in eliminating what he described as "sweatshop" conditions in United States post-offices.

The appeal was made in an address before the seventh biennial convention of the national customs service.

He said that in such a city as Cleveland the average half-monthly check of a substitute postoffice em-ploye is for 58 cents. In many places, he declared, such employes receive only from $1 to $6 a week.

Hindenburg Reported As Dangerously III

STRASBOURG, June 28 .- (UP)-A report that President Paul Von Hindenburg, aged chief executive of Hindenburg, aged chief executive of Germany, is dangerously ill at his summer villa at Neudeck was printed today in the newspaper Derniere Nouvelles. He will be 86 in October.

The dispatch, printed under a Berlin date line, said physicians attending Von Hindenburg were worried over his condition. He was reported to have suffered a heat attack resulting in a three-day period in which he was only semi-conscious. He was able to take a few steps today, however, the report added.

Intermittent Rains Cheer Thousands of Farmers in Midwest.

By the Associated Press. Heat that brought deaths and caused heavy crop damage continued over vast reaches of the nation Wedover vast reaches of the nation Wednesday, but intermittent rain storms brought cheer to thousands of farmers in the midwestern "breadbasket."
The regions soaked by rain included parts of Wisconsin, Iowa, Missouri and Illinois. There were foreasts calling for much needed moisture in states as widely separated as Michigan and Colorado.

In many sections, however, a seorching sun popped out fom behind the clouds as soon as showers ended. The temperatures remained high and crops experts said the benefit of moisture was thus lessened.

Our code provides for a maximum work week of 40 hours for labor and a limitation of 80 hours per week on productive machinery. Eighty-five per cent of all the cotton mills in the United States have approved of this limitation on hours for labor and me. limitation on hours for labor and ma-chinery. Our industry committee is unanimously of the opinion that the government's desire, as expressed in the Recovery Act and by President Rosswelt personally goes for beyond Roosevelt personally, goes far beyond the matter of shortening the work week and spreading employment and we are supported in this position by 85 per cent of the mills.

The vital matter of rehabilitating industry is definitely set forth in the act as one of the government's major objectives. But even though no men-tion had been made of industrial re-covery and assuming for the sake of argument that the purposes of the bill had been confined merely to spreading employment, we should still be em-phatic in our contention that stabilized employment goes hand in hand with stabilized production.

As expressed recently in a public statement, it is my conviction that healthier conditions in employment in this industry can never be realized until we correct this terrible menace of overcements when the conditions is this menace of would happen to this perticular think. I want to say in all sincerity, as I have explained to the representatives of the government, that I feel our code is headed for disaster if we are placed in the position where we assent to special privileges. We are acting under an emergency measure. The action taken, it seems to us, must be on broad and firm lines if the emergency is to be met. We realize that there must be a certain flexibility in the handling of the code. This is provided for in the code itself. But flexibility for in the code itself. But flexibility should apply to the industry as a whole and not to special sections or groups, and should be based on experience in the distriction of the sections of the section of perience in the administration of the code rather than on hypothetical dif-ficulties, which may or may not materialize

Indeed, we estimate that 100,000 additional workers will be needed in the cotton textile industry under the proposed 40-40 plan. This point is mentioned inasmuch as the question was recently raised by a three shifts in the city of New Bed place no restriction on productive ma-

He plainly indicated that 90 per cent of the mill executives in this industry were ready to correct our problems it a way could be found to make cooperation 100 per cent effective. This assurance is provided in the National Industrial Recovery Act.

Some of the mill executives who are objecting to the 80-hour limitation on machinery (in spite of the fact that our statistical records over a period of years clearly demonstrate that 80 hours will more than neet the public requirements) have taken the position that there should be no restriction on

Eczema Burned and Itched Terribly. Healed by Cuticura.

"Eczema broke out in pimples on my child's head and later spread to her neck and back. It burned and itched terribly and the little one scratched and cried continually. Her clothing hurt her so that I kept a very thin dress on her. Her hair came out in handfuls and what was left was lifeless and dry. The irritation prevented her from sleeping.
"I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I could see a difference after using them. I purchased more and after using two cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment she was healed." (Signed) Mrs. J. K. Thompson, Energy, Texas, July 26, 1932.

Carnera Well Backed on Eve of Title Fight With Sharkey

Sharkey --- You Must Respect Him Even If You Don't Like Him

Jack Sharkey fights Primo Carnera tonight in the Madison Square Garden bowl which is located some miles out on Long

And the Sharkey man should win despite the fact that Carnera is younger, 60 pounds heavier, and possessed of a much longer reach. Sharkey must go to him to win as he did in the last nine rounds of their fight two years ago.

Sitting there shivering in the cold that invaded Ebbetts field that night, I watched Sharkey's face grow red and puffed from running into the straight left jab which Carnera threw at him that night. Sharkey was trying to stay away and box him.

After six rounds of it Sharkey began to weave in under that left and within a few rounds he had whittled the huge Italian down to his size and was belting him around

Sharkey stayed away from Max Schmeling and kept a left in Schmeling's face, piling up so many points there should never have been any argument about it. No title should change hands on a decision and of all the bores in the world Sharkey and Schmeling were two of them. But the rules read that left jabs are points when cleanly scored and Sharkey must have scored

But he cannot stay away from Carnera and win. He will hardly have forgot the lesson learned that chilly night at Ebbetts field. He should win with enough points to spare. And if he goes about it methodically enough and as cleverly as he knows how, he should win by a

This fight, which is under the direction of the Garden, is filled with rumors that it is all in the bag. A last-minute switch to Carnera means that the wise money knows something. Or thinks it does. But the wise money isn't always so wise.

A WORTHY CHAMPION.

Jack Sharkey is, in many respects, one of the most worthy champions we have ever had. He is not my idea of a heavyweight champion. Because a fighter should be a fighter such as Dempsey was and Max Baer is.

Dempsey did not pay very much attention to the rules. Nor did Baer in his fight with Schmeling. They had the idea that the big idea was to knock the other fellow down so that he would stay there for the count of ten or longer. And so Dempsey violated the rules in the Firpo fight and in the Sharkey bout and was warned often in others. And Baer was hitting back-hand blows and holding Schmeling around the neck with his left while belting him very enthusiastically with his right.

But Sharkey is entitled to your respect and much of your sympathy. He has been misunderstood and also misinterpreted more than any other champion we have had unless it was Gene

Because he answers questions with what he considers the truth he has been called a braggart, a screaming fishwife, the garrulous gob and various other names and titles. He is very frank about his own importance and that of his opponents. He was never careful to hide his dislikes and his likes. If he thought someone was a bum dislikes and his likes. If he thought someone was a bum he would say so very readily indeed. He tells you precisely what he thinks.

The man is almost one of these "asides" which Eugene were likely on the sets were Albert J. Horton, Williams, who won from H. J. Lynch. Princeton, 4-6, 6-0, 6-2; Williams, 4-6, 6-0, 6-2; Williams, 4-6, 6-0, 6-0, 6-2; Williams, 4-6, 6-0, 6-0, 6-2; Williams, 4-6, 6-0, 6-0, 6-characters in that play spoke their lines but their real thoughts were also presented. Sharkey offers nothing else.

For this he has been lambasted in the press. This made him resentful, angry and gave him a feeling that he was being persecuted for speaking the truth. So he took a malicious pleasurable for the press. Surface, University of Texas, 6-2, and Joseph Coughlin, Stanford, who was the hardest pressed of all with a 6-3, 4-6, 7-5, victory over Sterling Williams, of Texas, seeded No. 2, and C. E. Loughlin, U. S. Naval Academy, won matches from Billy and without reservation. ure in speaking what he thought, fully and without reservation.

OUR SUDDEN HEROES.

Most of our heroes who are catapulted from nowhere to sudden fame, have this lack of diplomacy. Lindbergh is harsh to the press when once he sought it. He once spattered people with mud by starting his motor so that the propeller threw it.

Tunney once sought publicity and then evaded it, making himself disliked by practically all of those who had helped him along the road. Dempsey was once most unpopular. Most fight fans cheered Carpentier before Dempsey knocked him out. Ruth was not always a Sharkey, the son of Lithuanian immigrants, was serving in the lowest of rank in the United States navy just a few years ago. He had nothing except boxing skill and ambition.

Yet I think with all his faults he has come through with considerable honor. He is one of the few who has never been touched with scandal. No women have sued him for breach of promise or for any other fancied wrong. He has never been implicated with race track gambling. He does not play the night clubs. He has provided for his family with trust funds. He has provided for his parents. He loves his three children with a devotion that is unusual. His life is completely in accord with his home, his family, a flower garden and fishing and

And understand that he was not prepared for riches and fame as most boys are who have those assets. He had no schooling no contacts with well-ordered life and society. The son of immigrant parents, a former sailor, he was thrust suddenly into fame and fortune.

Those meeting him find him a pleasant mild-mannered fellow.

that he speaks sincerely

If he does not always speak wisely he, nevertheless, knows the speaks sincerely.

"The hysterical fishwife"—"Braggart"—"The garrulous Gob"—I think the fellow has been treated unfairly. He is not a great fighter, but he is one of the greatest box the game has ever had. And if he isn't a worthy champion, against Sid Nabors recently, and, although he forfeited one fall on a foul. The chief her five forestered one fall on a foul. The chief her five forestered one fall on a foul. ers the game has ever had. And if he isn't a worthy champion, then we haven't had one.

DEMPSEY REGARDS HIM HIGHLY.

It was interesting to talk with Jack Dempsey about Shar-key. Since their fight just before Dempsey met Tunney for prices will prevail. the first time Sharkey and Dempsey have carried on a campaign of recrimination.

Yet Dempsey assured me while here this week that he thought highly of Sharkey. And he, too, recognized the splendid qualities of the man. Dempsey respects him highly.

As who shouldn't? John Cucoshay-a kid in the Lithu-job of making something of one's self.

Lester Stoefen and Clifford Sutter, Lester Stoelen and Clifford Sutter, another highly-liked American combination, gained the second round with a 6-2, 2-6, 9-7, 6-4 win over the French youngsters, Marcel Bernard and Andre Merlin.

Henri Cochet, France's mighty one was given a tremendous battle by Clayton Lee Burwell, former United States intercollegiate star, before win-ning. 2-6, 6-4, 6-3, 5-7, 6-3. The Frenchman was decidedly off his game and only his steadiness in the pinches enabled him to come through.

Other results were: men's singles—David Jones, New York, defeated Colin Robbins, South Africa, 7-5, 6-2, 11-9; Jack Crawford, Australia, defeated Antoine Gentien, France, 6-3, 6-4, 8-6.

Women's singles-Mrs. Dorothy Andrus Burke, Stamford, Conn., defeated Mrs. D. Crichton, England, 6-4, 6-4; Fraulein Von Ende-Flugner defeated Virginia Rice, Boston, 6-4, 6-4; Miss G. Harry, England, defeated Senora B. Pons, 4-6, 6-4, 6-2.

REESE BEATEN

HAVERFORD, Pa., June 28:-(UP)—The eight seeded players won their way into the quarter-final round of the national intercollegiate tennis hampionship at the Merion Cricket Club today. Six of the favorites had gruelling matches, however, four of them being carried to three sets. The top ranking star, Jack Tidball, University of California, Los Angeles, was seriously challenged by Marco Hecht, University of Pennsylvania, After losing the first set 7-3, the Red and Blue star had Tidball set point at 5-0 in the second set, when Tidball ran out four games, finally losing 4-6. However, Tidball won the third set, 6-0.

The lina, seeded No. 8, who detects Surface, University of Texas, 6-3, 5-7, Mancuso Delivers Winning Circuit Clout in Even Break With Bucs.

NEW YORK, June 28-(P)-Two home runs, one by Hughie Critz in the ninth and the other by Gus Mancuso in the tenth, gave the New York Giants an even break in today's double-header with the Pittsburgh Pirates and allowed them to increase their lead a full game over the Cardinals, who dropped two games at Critz's blow, hit with Travis Jackson on base, tied the score, and Mancuso's circuit swat with two teammates on the bases gare the league leaders a 7-to-4 triumph after Steve Swetonic had pitched the Corsairs to a 5-to-2 victory in the opening encounter.

A home run also accounted for the first two runs off Larry French in the nighteap. Mel Ott driving out his ninth four-bagger with Lefty O'Doul on base in the second inning. Gus Suhr matched Ott's blow with his second homer of the day in the sixth. however, and the Pirates went into the ninth with a two-run lead.

Parmelee gave way to a pinch hit-ter in the seventh and Adolfo Luque and George Uhle hald the Piates in check through the final innings.

In the first game the Pirates pounced upon Carl Hubbell in the eighth inning for three runs to overcome a one-run Giant lead to defeat the New York ace southpaw for the second time this year. Hubbell lost the only two games the Terrymen have dropped to Pittsburgh.

**Trader Horn' Watkins* Has Lost Few Trades His Last One Blew Up and His Club Is Tied With Crackers. By Ralph McGill. That split season in the Southern league, which has put on a couple history of boxing to do so. SHARKEY "RIPE." The reasons for the betting trend were hard to find. Sharkey is in perfect condition and is only 31 years old. the prime of life for a heavy-weight who lives carefully. The prize tring can point to a dozen titleholders who fought their best at that age, Gene Tunney among them. Just as Sharkey has trained perfectly, displaying speed, punching power, a sharp eye, confidence, and plenty of venom, so has Carnera's workouts been most ordinary. The amazing undercurrent of respect for the big Italian probably reverts to his knockout victory last winer over Ernie Schaaf, the Boston heavyweight who died a few days.

That split season in the Southern league, which has put on a couple of acts, seems to have been a great success in so far as a couple of weak sisters were concerned.

Little Rock and Knoxville are tied with New Orleans for the real leadership of the league. Formerly they were last. As might be expected, the Crackers, who get no benefits from anything whatever, not even the R. F. C., are down in the deep dugout once more.

One is reminded of that doleful little tune which the late Bert Williams of a "killer," smoething he failed to display in bouts with Jimmy Maloney, King Levinsky, Larry Gains, Pauling used to chant:

"I ain't never done nothin' to nooooobody,
I ain't never done nothin' to

But until I gits somethin'

The Crackers have not done anything to their opponents and it is high time the Crackers got something from

"Trader Horn" Tom Watkins seems to have disrupted his ball club when he swapped off Joe Hutcheson to the Brooklyn club—even though the deal did fall flatter than a bride's first cake.

Because the Memphis ball club is tied with the Crackers for last place in learner standing, there is no need in league standing, there is no need to waste sympathy on the Memphis club, however. It has the first half in the bag. The second half may be lost and the flag won in the play-off.

FIRST LOSS.

FIRST LOSS.

The interesting feature about the trade which Tom Watkins made and lost, is that it is probably the first one the Memphis owner has lost on. Because "Trader Horn" Tom Watkins has the finest record of peddling ball players to the majors that one may find in the minors.

Tom." But just as a hole in one may not always be luck, so are Tom Watkins' deals a matter of shrewd business.

He has sold, in the course of his career, Sammy Vick, Muddy Ruel, Horace Lisenbee, Earl Webb. Ray Moss, Lloyd Brown, Andy High, Bobby Barrett, Danny Taylor, Andy Reese, Johnny Frederick, Sam Leslie, Gil Campbell, Erik McNair, Joe Heving, Walter Beck and quite a few others. Many of those names are in major-league box scores.

Eddie Toulon, Memphis scout, is given credit for finding them. And therein is a suggestion for the Crackers—a real scout would do a lot of good. The Crackers have never had one. It seems to pay dividends.

Thomasville has the tall, bronzed young veteran of many campaigns, G. R. (Scotie) Beverly, an erratic player but, a sensational competitor when he's on his game. Beverly gave a demonstration recently when in the Glen Arven Club championship he shot a 68, four under par, to win the finals. Other Thomasville linksman who should be among the contenders are Pat Pate, R. P. Wimberly, Dr. C. H. Watt and Dr. C. K. Wall.

From the Radium Springs Club at Albany are expected Dick and Wilbur Cherry. Howard Lilliston, Richard Tift and others. Over on the banks of the Chattahoochee, at Columbus, Frank Garrard, W. H. Dismuke Jr., and J. D. Kervin Jr., are expected to compete.

NEW YORK, June 28.-(P) Steaming heat brought rising temperatures in the fight business today peratures in the fight business today peratures in the urospect of another huge and the prospect of another huge crowd for Jack Sharkey's 15-round heavyweight title defense against Primo Carnera tomorrow night in Madison Square Garden's bowl on Long Island.

The preliminaries were over, the fighters' workouts ended, and there was nothing left for the faithful to do but hustle out to dig up ticket money and argue the merits of two of the strangest foes who ever collided in heivyweight championship combat. heivyweight championship combat.

MANY ANGLES.

MANY ANGLES.

This duel has developed more angles than a futuristic book ease. The railbirds wonderingly studied a shift in betting sentiment that brought the monstrous Italian, biggest man ever to fight for the crown, down to the starting line at least an even money favorite with Sharkey, the man who two years ago gave him a gawdy pasting for 15 rounds in Ebbet's field. Sharkey wasn't the champion then and Carnera, despite his 270 pounds, his six feet 7 inches of height, and tremendous reach, was just a circus by-product, lured to the ring chiefly for exhibition purposes. Sharkey conceded him 65 pounds, knocked him down early, then banged away at the huge hulk until the Italian was just about able to navigate through the

Yet today, there was every prospect, due to paucity of Sharkey backers and the eagerness of those willing to bet on the Italian, that Carnera would enter the ring a slight favorite, first heavyweight challenger in the history of boxing to do so.

A brilliant event of last evening was the marriage of Miss Mary Cabanis Crenshaw and Laurence Lowe McCullough which took place at 8:30 o'clock at the First Methodist church in the presence of a representative assemblage of relatives and friends. Dr. Samuel T. Senter, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

Calla lilies featured the decoration throughout the handsome church. A platform was built over the chancel to which the bridal party assended for the cremony. Plans, ferns and other foliage plants banked the choir loft, with clusters of calla lilies effectively used in the foreground. Candles froming triple tiers were built above the choir loft following the architectural lines of the great organ. Tall, single tapers tied with clusters of calla lilies adorned either side of the prieu-dieu where the bridal couple took their vows. Calla lilies effectively marked the pews occupied by members of the families.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. W. H. L. Nelms rendered the following organ selections: "Spring Song." Iendelssohn: "Evening Star," Wagner: "Liebestraum," Lizzt: "Estrellitat." Ponce: "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," Saint-Saens: "Love Song" Nevin; and "Hail to the Happy Bridal Day," Donizetti. The wedding party entered to the strains of the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin." and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" was used as the recessional. her money, whereas, if he told her that his wife was spending her last cent in order to regain her lost health his mother would not accept the money from him and he could help me. He insists that he loves me and promises that he will lay aside something while am away so we can keep house when I return. This doesn't satisfy me. I think his family should know of our plight. Am I right? MRS. C. A KJ109864 A A I & 4

Answer: The cards are stacked against you, dear woman. You can't bring a selfish, irresponsible man to law after you have married him secretly and assumed your own support from the very day of your marriage. He may be fond of you in his cool and detached fashion, but as for any unselfish devotion, he has proved that he is incapable of it. If he had any tenderness or any nits, in his could tenderness or any pity in his soul your sad plight would have aroused both. Yet he continues to neglect a sick wife, to deny her not only the comfort of his presence at her bedside, but the actual support that the law would give her were the tax support that the law would give her were she to appeal to

Here is the crux of the matter; The husband's family should be made acquainted with the facts but he is certain to visit his displeasure on the person that exposes him. So if you are willing to brook his displeasure, willing to run the risk of his deserting you, if indeed you don't count that he has already deserted you, go abead and write to his mother and tell her the facts in the case. Don't do it without giving him fair warning. Give him another chance to discuss the matter with his mother and tell him that if he refuses to do this you will take the bull by the horns and do it yourself. You can't worsen your present financial plight by revealing the truth and you may better it. You can at least ease your own burdened mind and heart by sharing the secret with your husband's family.

You must consider this fact: That a man's family displeased with his marriage always thinks that the woman married him, and therefore, they are prone to visit their displeasure on the woman rather than on their own son. This particular man has evidently been badly spoiled by his parents and they will see through his eyes and seek to excuse him as he is seeking to excuse him-self.

Judging from my correspondence, it is more often than otherwise the school teachers who try the perilous experiment of secret marriage. Probably it is fear of losing their positions by reason of marriage that betrays them into committing such a folly. Nine times out of ten they have cause to regret the step. Any relationship that cannot be broughtout into the light is fraught with danger and a secret marriage tops out into the light is fraught with danger and a secret marriage tops the list of these. Public opinion has a tremendous power over a man. The public expects him to support his wife and this consciousness on his part sometimes makes him do his duty by her although he lacks the pride and sense of responsibility that would drive him to it.

Love is a great miracle worker but it won't reverse nature's laws and it won't guarantee health and it won't pay doctors' and hospital bills. Young people considering marriage should at the same time consider these facts and realize that, while love is free to rich and poor alike, marriage is, relatively speaking, the most ex-pensive luxury that rich or poor can buy.

Opening Suit Bids of Three in a Major.

BY ELY CULBERTSON. World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst.

An Opening suit bid of three in a major is partly a strength-showing bid and partly a shutout bid. Its chief characteristic is that the trump suit itself does not require adequate support from partner. It must necessarily include at least five sure trump-tricks, and as a matter of general practice it usually includes more. In counting these playing-tricks the player should give honors their full values rather than the values assigned to them on a defensive basis. For example, a combination such as K J 10 9 8 7 is worth 4 1-2 playing-tricks rather than only four. This is obtained by giving the K J 10 the value of 1 1-2 playing-tricks rather than its pure honor-trick value of only one.

Answers: Examples 1 and 2 are Answers: Examples 1 and 2 are excellent examples of non-vulnerable three-bids in a major. Example 3 should be opened with one spade because the playing strength is not quite great enough. Example 4 should also be opened with one spade because the hand is too strong for a semi-pre-emptive bid. Example 5 holds too much playing strength, and should be bid one heart. Example 6 should be bid three spades. Example 7 is too strong, and should be opened with one spade. Example 8 is a three-heart bid. heart bid.

YOUNGSTOWN.—Steel production in the Youngstown district has made a midweek increase of about 2 per cent, bringing it to about 58 per cent of capacity. Forty-eight of the district's 83 open hearth furnaces were active Wednesday as against 46 last Saturday. The increase was in corporation plants. An operating percentage of 60 to 65 per cent is regarded as "normal" in the steel industry.

NEW YORK.-Norfolk & Wes-NEW 10KK.—Norrolk & Western's car loadings last week amounted to 22,991 cars against 21,810 the week before and 15,709 a year ago, according to a report filed today.

COLUMBIA, S. C.—Employment of 200 additional workers making approximately 700 in all by the Columbia Duck Mills, subsidiary of the Mt. Vernon Woodberry Mills, of Baltimore, Md., was announced Wednestday by L. C. Smith, general agent. Smith said increased employment and production predicated on a decided pick up in orders had resulted in a nearly 100 per cent increase in the plant's pay roll over three months ago.

NEW YORK.—Steel production has risen three points to 53 per cent of capacity. Iron Age said Wednesday. The upward swing, uninterrupted since the third week of March when operations touched 14 per cent, is one of the sharpest in the industry's history. history.

NEW YORK, June 28-(49)-Aside from slight opening advances, cotton from slight opening advances, cotton was generally lower today under liquidation or realizing inspired by the recent sharp advances as well as weakness of wheat.

Nervousness over the European currency situation accounted for later irregular fluctuations. October contracts closed at 10.36 with the general market closing barely steady at net declines of 15 to 20 points.

Opening advances of 2 to 6 points on higher cables proved to be the best levels for the day. Weakness of the dollar and absence of overnight relief from drouth in the southwest brought in moderate trade, commission house.

Wall Street and New Orleans buying.

This demand encountered fairly liberal offerings, however, and the market soon eased under renewed liquidation and southern selling. Shortly after the first half hour of trading a sharp initial break in wheat brought in much heavier pressure with July selling off from 10.30 to 10.04 and December from 10.77 to 10.45 or 21 to 26 points net lower.

Trade and foreign buying absorbed contracts on the declines while partial rallies attracted increased pressure at around the 10 1-2 cents level for October.

Further institutional investment purchases were reported in the high-grade groups, reflecting the switching of funds from banks where interest on demand deposits has been abolished.

Continued gains in revenues and car loadings brought another good volume of buying into rail issues, chiefly the secondary descriptions.

There were numerous gains of 1 to 2 points in the carrier group, which responded to leadership of loans of Baltimore & Ohio, Missouri Pacific and St. Louis Southwestern.

Utilities had a generally good tone. Industrial loans appeared to swing in accord with factors affecting individual properties.

ous whips...w action, dollar wheat was thrown into the discard today and huge selling operations took the place speculative stampedes to buy Wheat plunged down approximately

7 cents and despite hild transient rallies finished at almost the day's rallies finished at almost the day's bottom figures.

All grain markets had been honeycombed with stop-loss orders from recent speculative buyers.
Wheat closed excittd, all deliveries below $1, and May at 99 1-4, with the market as a whole 5 1-4 to 6 cents under yesterday's finish; corn 3-4 to 5-8 down; oats 3 1-4 to 4 off, and provisions varying from 5 cents decline to a rise of 20 cents.
Corn and oats closely followed wheat, with many traders governed by expectan of 1 break in the heat wave and the drouth.
Provious averaged higher, responsive to hog market upturns.

Apostolic Blessing Bestowed on Roosevelt

VATICAN CITY, June 28.—(A).
Pope Pius bestowed the apostolic blessing on President Roosevelt today at the request of Mayor James
M. Curley, of Boston.

M. Curley, of Boston.

At a private audience the mayor informed the pope that he saw Mr. Roosevelt a week before he sailed from the United States and told the president he would ask the pontiff to confer the blessing on him. He said Mr. Roosevelt replied that he would be most highly honored to receive it.

Pope Pius, gratified by Mr. Curley's statement, immediately gave the blessing and charged the mayor formally to inform the president of this fact.

county agents were unable to attend due to duties in signing up cotton growers to plow up a portion of their crop.

Several groups of tobacco farmers visited the station Tuesday and were taken on tours of inspection of the tobacco fields. The purpose of the various experiments were explained and results summarized.

The first field of experiments visited Wednesday consisted of several hundred plots planned to determine the rotation of crops best suited to control the tobacco disease known as root knot. This disease is the most important field disease of tobacco grown in Georgia.

From experiments shown it was apparent that by rotating tobacco with such crops as peanuts, corn, oats and weeds this disease could be controlled to such an extent that a good crop of tobacco is assured under most conditions. It was stressed that such rotation should not contain tobacco any oftener than once in three years.

From the disease control experiments, the farmers were taken to the fields in which the tobacco fertilizer experiments are located. These experiments are designed to determine the quantities of nitrogen, phosphorous, potash, magnesium and chlorine that should be used in a tobacco fertilizer in order to have a properly balanced plant food.

There also are experiments to assert in which fertilizer metarsiteds.

Stowayays on British Freighter Are Old Men of Sea to Captain

SAVANNAH, Ga., June 28.—(P)—
Three stowaways aboard the British freighter Induna have thrown the ship's master into throes of perplexity and he is wondering if he must make a special trip back to Seville, Spain, to get rid of them.

They slipped aboard at that port, were found in the vessel's hold far at sea and since have been the captain's unwelcomed guests for the simple reason he can't find any place to unload them.

Immigration laws bar them from landing on American soil and the captain would be fined heavily if they sescaped the boat. So when the Induna reached Savannah harbor during the week-end, he placed them in irons and transferred them to the city jail for safe keeping.

A list of the official stores giving Jinkys and Jinky receipts will be published in The Constitution each Monday, Wednesday and Saturday. You may ask for and get Jinkys and Jinky receipts any day in the week, but JINKYS MAY BE ENTERED IN THE CON-of the co-operating stores he or she will receive 4 Jinky receipts. If a con-

TEST ONLY ON WEDNESDAYS, AT 137 PEACHTREE ARCADE. 7. Prizes will be awarded according to rules announced each Wednesday, 8. This week's contest will close promptly at 6:30 p. m. on Wednesday, May 24th, and winners' names for the week will be published in the following Sunday Constitution. 9. All Jinkys will be judged according to:

a. Oddity. b. Originality. c. Artistic Merit. SUGGESTIONS: For this contest, small lacy figures are not as desirable as bold, easily recognized designs. Make your Jinkys so the judges will be attracted at once. Don't compel them to study out the design—in other words, make it odd, make it original, and make it as artistic as you can—BUT ABOVE ALL, MAKE IT. You have just as good
